Dear Christine,

Thank you for your good company throughout my visit to Pakistan. The formal occasions and the UNESCO/CRI event were made even more enjoyable by your companionship.

President Bush and I greatly appreciate your marvelous hospitality at the residence, and our staff members are effusive in their gratitude for their accommodations as well. We are all talking about your impressive art collection.

The President and I send our deep gratitude to you and the Ambassador for your outstanding service to the nation.

With warm regards,

APR 23 2006

Mrs. Christine Crocker, wife of US Ambassador to Pakistan Mrs. Crocker accompanied Mrs. Bush throughout the visit. In addition to the UNESCO/CRI event, Mrs. Crocker also accompanied Mrs. Bush for the coffee with Mrs. Musharraf, the lunch hosted by President and Mrs. Musharraf, as well as the Pakistan State Dinner. The President and Mrs. Bush (and most of out staff) stayed the night at their beautiful residence (with a fabulous eclectic art collection). Please thank Christine for her hospitality and please commend her and the Ambassador for their service in Pakistan. (Christine is a retired foreign service officer; she served for 23 years) This was the President and Mrs. Bush's first trip to Pakistan.
