2020 Summer Camp Application

June 17 - 19, 2020

“Camp 43: Leader of One, Leader of Many”

Join the staff of the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum for our summer “Camp 43!” Focusing on the importance of leadership and the decision-making process, you will discover how values and personal beliefs affect your decisions, develop skills for working in diverse groups, and hear first-hand from public and private figures about the process they use to make decisions. The experience is based primarily in group activities, discussion, and presentations from community leaders. Lunch and snacks provided daily with a formal dinner on June 19th to conclude the camp.

Day 1 (June 17): Leader of Self, 8:30 — 4:00

Day 2 (June 18): Leader of Others, 8:30 — 4:00

Day 3 (June 19): Leader for the Future, 10:00 — 7:00

Participants: Twenty-four high school students who will graduate in 2020, 2021, or 2022

How to Apply: Submit this form with your answers to the short essay prompts, two professional Letters of Recommendation, and a resume to the address or email below.

Application Deadline: Close of business April 10, 2020

Participants will receive notification of acceptance or placement on a wait list and information about camp logistics via e-mail no later than May 8, 2020.

Notes: There is no cost for the camp. All participants are responsible for their own transportation to and from the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum each day and may be photographed or videotaped during the course of the camp. By submitting your application, you agree to these terms.

SHORT ESSAY PROMPTS

Directions: For each of the following prompts, please write a 250 word essay including specific examples to support your answer. Evaluators use your responses to gain insight into your beliefs about leadership during the application review process.

1. If you are selected, how do you plan on using the skills of leadership to further your educational and professional goals?
2. Describe what success means to you.
3. When you make an important decision what influences your decision-making process?
