Dear Messrs. Kamenar and Adams:

This is in response to your letter addressed to the Office of Homeland Security Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Manager, which was received via facsimile by the Office of Administration (OA) on March 6, 2002. OA is a distinct entity from the White House Office of Homeland Security, which is another entity within the Executive Office of the President. We have forwarded your request letter to the Office of Homeland Security, but please note that the White House is not subject to the FOIA.

Should you have any questions concerning your request, contact the Office of Homeland Security directly.

Sincerely,
