Re: Nomination of Frederick W. Rohlifing III to U.S. District Court in Hawaii

Dear Senator Leahy:

The Board of Directors of the Hawaii State Bar Association (HSBA) has found Frederick W. Rohlifing III to be highly qualified for the position of U.S. District Court Judge in Hawaii, and he therefore meets our very highest level of standards for recommendation to the Bench.

As part of the HSBA Board's procedures for taking a position on judicial appointments, the candidate is requested to submit a resume and/or respond to a questionnaire and to appear before the Board, which Mr. Rohlifing has done. The HSBA Board utilizes a modified version of the American Bar Association Guidelines for Reviewing Qualifications of Candidates for State Judicial Office. These Guidelines include the following criteria for judicial positions: integrity, legal knowledge and ability, professional experience, judicial temperament, diligence, financial responsibility, public service, collegiality, and writing ability.

The HSBA Board's rating system includes the categories of "highly qualified," "qualified," or "not qualified."

The qualifications of Mr. Rohlifing for the position of U.S. District Court Judge in Hawaii were reviewed in this manner and the HSBA Board determined that he is highly qualified.

Please contact me if you have any questions about our position on this matter.

Sincerely,

Michael W. Gibson, President
Hawaii State Bar Association

Frederick W. Rohlfing Biography

Frederick W. Rohlfing III is a founding partner in the Honolulu law firm of Rohlfing & Stone. Born in what was then the Territory of Hawaii, he graduated from Punahou School in 1974, received his B.A. magna cum laude, with high honors in economics, from Dartmouth College in 1978, and his J.D. from the University of Chicago in 1983. In Chicago, Mr. Rohlfing was active in the Mandel Legal Aid Clinic, representing Social Security Disability claimants.

Since returning to Honolulu in 1983, Mr. Rohlfing has concentrated his practice primarily in business, real estate, and personal injury civil litigation. He has vigorously advocated on behalf of injured traffic accident victims, including before the Hawaii Supreme Court. Mr. Rohlfing is a member of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America.

An opening brief co-authored by Mr. Rohlfing in the case of Swire Properties (Hawaii), Ltd. v. Zoning Board of Appeals was selected by the Hawaii Supreme Court as the best example of appellate writing from the State of Hawaii for submission to the first annual Scribe's Brief Writing Competition sponsored by the American Society of Writers on Legal Subjects.

In federal court, Mr. Rohlfing has participated in a variety of cases involving First Amendment constitutional law, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Clean Water Act, the Lanham Act, the Petroleum Marketing Practices Act, the Securities Act, and the Sherman Antitrust Act. Mr. Rohlfing has also been a faculty speaker in several continuing legal education seminars in Hawaii.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Rohlfing is active in the community. He served from 1991-1993 as an elected member of the Manoa Neighborhood Board of the City and County of Honolulu. He was the president of Manoa Paniolo (Youth) Football from 1999-2001, and presently serves as a member of the Mission Houses Museum board.

Lowell K.Y. Chun-Hoon, Esq. of King, Nakamura & Chun-Hoon,
Honolulu, Hawaii:

- "I have worked together with him extensively representing a mutual client in an unusually complicated personal injury-legal malpractice-workers' compensation claim... I was impressed by his rapid assimilation of this arcane body of law, his graceful and lucid prose, and his tenacious representation of the injured worker. . . . I hope the fact that he is endorsed by a lifelong union lawyer like myself suggests something of his ability to transcend traditional labels and affiliations through the force of his character and intellect." Excerpt from February 20, 2002 letter to Michael Gibson, President, Hawaii State Bar Association.

Cynthia A. Farias, Esq., Honolulu, Hawaii:

- "In my opinion, Mr. Rohlfig is highly intelligent, completely honest and extremely hard-working. He is reasonable and even-tempered, and has been a pleasure to work with. Mr. Rohlfig is also a problem-solver who will work diligently towards resolution of an issue. He has the legal skills, experience and work ethic to be an excellent judge." Excerpt from February 20, 2002 letter to Michael Gibson, President, Hawaii State Bar Association.

Thomas E. Crowley, Esq., of the Law Offices of Thomas E. Crowley,
Honolulu, Hawaii:

- "Mr. Rohlfig is an excellent lawyer and litigator. He brings two critical skills to each case which are fundamental to a district court judgeship: the ability to correctly analyze complicated issues, and the ability to communicate that analysis in a clear and concise way. He is extremely well-organized, prompt, careful, and efficient. Of special note is the superior quality of Mr. Rohlfig's legal writing."

- "Mr. Rohlfig is more than an excellent litigator. He has private as well as public integrity, which means he is honest in both his personal and professional dealings. As a judge, Mr. Rohlfig would have the courage to displease, which means he will rule the right way, even in the face of public and private pressure." Excerpt from March 12, 2002 letter to Senator Patrick Leahy.

The Honorable Boyd P. Mossman, State of Hawaii Circuit Court Judge for the Second Circuit, Retired

- "Fritz's legal education and his experience with business as well as the law provide him with an intellectual capacity and confidence; however, his sense of community and sense of humor generating from his local roots are an even better gauge of his genuineness and dedication to Hawaii and the United States." Excerpt from February 5, 2002 letter to Michael Gibson, President, Hawaii State Bar Association.

Sharon R. Himeno, Esq. of Price Okamoto Himeno & Lum, Honolulu, Hawaii:

- "I am pleased to endorse Fritz Rohlfig's nomination to the U.S. District Court. I have known Fritz for over 25 years, and he has always been a person of the highest integrity and intellect. His credentials are outstanding, he has extensive experience as a litigator in both federal and state court, and he would be a great addition to our federal bench." Excerpt from February 20, 2002 letter to the Michael Gibson, President, Hawaii State Bar Association.

Charles Robert Ching, Esq. of Honolulu, Hawaii:

- "In working with Fritz, I found both his legal analysis and his written work product to be consistently excellent. In discussing legal issues and theories, Fritz demonstrates a keen legal mind and an abiding respect for the law. I am particularly impressed by Fritz's ability to recall and explore alternate legal theories and his willingness to entertain and analyze such theories on their own merits. In this regard, Fritz has always displayed an intellectual curiosity, integrity, and judgement that would be especially well suited to the bench. Fritz is also a tireless legal researcher with a thirst for substantive legal knowledge and a seemingly infinite capacity to digest case law." Excerpt from February 11, 2002 letter to the Michael Gibson, President, Hawaii State Bar Association.

Russell Blair, former Democratic state senator and District Judge:

- "We've had discussions over the years about matters political and legal and he's always struck me as being intelligent and forthright. He's coming from the right place: good heart and good head." The Honolulu Advertiser, Thursday, January 24, 2002.
