VIA FACSIMILE (202-456-7984)

Brett M. Kavanaugh
Assistant Counsel to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Brett:

I enjoyed meeting with you over lunch recently, and I appreciated the opportunity to discuss various issues of mutual interest. As I mentioned during our lunch, I am the ABA's principal lobbyist for all business related issues, and many of our policies in this area reflect the views of the more than 65,000 corporate counsel who make up the ABA Section of Business Law. I hope that we have the opportunity to work together on some of these issues in the future.

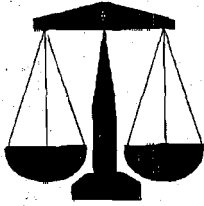

As we also discussed, the ABA Standing Committee on Federal Judiciary has played a key role ever since the Eisenhower Administration in reviewing and rating federal judicial nominees. Enclosed for your review is a list of the current members of the Committee. Also enclosed are summaries of the ABA's ratings of all Supreme Court nominees from 1955 to the present and of President Bush's federal judicial nominees during the past three years. As you can see, the vast majority of these nominees have received ratings of either "qualified" or "well-qualified."

Thanks again for taking the time to meet with me, and I look forward to speaking with you again soon. In the meantime, please give my regards to Tim Goeglein.

Best regards,

R. Larson Frisby

SUPREME COURT NOMINEES

1955	Harlan	Recommended that he be confirmed; eminently qualified (unanimous)
1956	Brennan	Eminently qualified (unanimous)
1957	Whittaker	Eminently qualified (unanimous)
1959	Stewart	Exceptionally well qualified (10-1)
1962	White	Exceptionally well qualified (unanimous)
1962	Goldberg	Highly acceptable from the standpoint of professional qualifications
1965	Fortas	Highly acceptable from the viewpoint of professional qualifications
1967	Marshall	Highly acceptable from the viewpoint of professional qualifications
1968	Fortas (Chief Justice)	Highly acceptable from the viewpoint of professional qualifications
1968	Thornberry	Highly acceptable from the viewpoint of professional qualifications (unanimous)
1969	Burger	Highly acceptable from the viewpoint of professional qualifications (unanimous)
1969	Haynesworth	Highly acceptable from the viewpoint of professional qualifications (unanimous)
1970	Carswell	Qualified (unanimous) * (Accepted by Senate)
1970	Blackmun	Meeting high standards of professional competence, temperament and integrity (unanimous)
1971	Powell	In an exceptional degree meets high standards of professional competence, judicial temperament and integrity, and is one of the best qualified lawyers available for appointment to the Supreme Court (unanimous)

1971	Rehnquist	Unanimously qualified (majority of 9 well qualified, minority of 3 not opposed)
1975	Steven	Meets high standards of professional competence, judicial temperament and integrity (unanimous)
1981	O'Connor	The Committee is of the opinion that Judge O'Connor meets the highest standards of judicial temperament and integrity. Her professional experience to date has not been as extensive or challenging as that of some other persons who might be available for appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States. Nevertheless, after considering her outstanding academic record, her demonstrated intelligence and her service as a legislator, a lawyer and a trial and appellate judge, the Committee is of the opinion that she is qualified from the standpoint of professional competence for appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States.
1986	Rehnquist (Chief Justice)	Well qualified (unanimous)
1986	Scalia	Well qualified (unanimous)
1987	Bork	Well qualified (10 well qualified, 1 not opposed, 4 not qualified)
1987	Kennedy	Well qualified (unanimous)
