We Extend Our Best
Wishes For A
Happy and Joyous
Holiday Season

Dear President Bush,

In this holiday season it is reassuring to me and to all Americans that a man of your principled leadership and steadfast convictions guides our proud nation. Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful New Year and know that we continue to keep you, Mrs. Bush, and all of your family in our prayers.

Little girls of my vintage (1921) gave their teacher and others we admired and respected a hanky in a Christmas card. My grandmother was born in Iowa in 1855 and started the hanky collection. My mother born in Iowa in 1898 added to the collection and now I am giving them away to people I like - so this one is for you.

To Whom It May Concern:

The NRCC Christmas mailing included a holiday greeting response card for each recipient addressed to the president. Although the majority of the personalized and returned cards were forwarded to you in boxes, two cards in particular merit special attention.

These two cards each included a gift for the president: an antique "GOP" handkerchief presented by Ms. Larita Nelson of Mount Vernon, WA and a hand-crocheted "God Bless America" sign on behalf of Mrs. Irene Mecklenburg of Shrewsbury, MA. These presents and their respective personalized cards are enclosed.

Thank you in advance for acknowledging receipt and appreciation for the thoughtful gifts of Ms. Nelson and Mrs. Mecklenburg.

Respectfully,

Charity McClure

Dwight D. Eisenhower (Ike) Campaign Handkerchief

I Like Ike. Win With Ike. These were campaign slogans that were short and simple and fit easily on pins and bumper stickers. This souvenir campaign handkerchief or textile was made for the 1956 presidential campaign, when Eisenhower was up for re-election. He was opposed for the second time by Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic Party nominee. The textile measures approximately 27" square. It is in excellent condition. (Stock number 003ike908a) $70.00
