THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 3, 2002

Dear Ms. Rubenstein:

Thank you for discussing with me the confidentiality agreement that Committee staff members will sign before reviewing documents of the Executive Office of the President and the Office of the Vice President today at the Eisenhower Executive Office Building. The documents are to be provided for review with due regard for the constitutional separation of powers and reserving all legal authorities and privileges that may apply, including with respect to other governmental entities or private parties. Today's review does not waive any right or privilege that the President and Vice President possess with respect to the documents and information contained therein.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Brett M. Kavanaugh
