1/30/04
THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Video Taping: NFL Alumni Heroes Award to Barbara Bush
Friday, January 30, 2004
Draft #4

Laura and I are pleased to join in honoring my mother, Barbara Bush, as she becomes the first woman to receive the NFL Alumni Heroes Award. I commend the NFL Alumni for their mission of Caring for Kids and for recognizing that professional athletes must be role models for young people both on and off the field.

The strength of America is the heart and soul of its people, and Barbara Bush is a good example. She has spent a lifetime volunteering her time and talents to help worthwhile causes – especially the cause of family literacy.

Mother, you may never win a Super Bowl, but you have coached countless children and parents to be winners in life by learning to read. And that has made you a hero to families across America – including our own.

Drafted by: Suzy DeFrancis, White House Communications
Office: 202/456-7910
