Staff Archivists, 2019. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released. Last Modified: 07/26/2019

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2019-0200-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2019-0200-F requested textual records mentioning Kimberly D. Olson.

This FOIA primarily contains correspondence, routine tracking documents, a printed brochure and program, and other administrative documents related to the drafting and approval of a presidential greeting for the attendees of the 38th national training program hosted by Federally Employed Women (FEW). Correspondence includes draft and final copies of the greeting, the request for the presidential greeting from the president of FEW, previous correspondence with FEW, and copies of previously sent correspondence containing similar language.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2019-0200-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files.

WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at www.georgewbushlibrary.smu.edu.
