Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2017-0029-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2017-0029-F requested records from the Office of Management and Budget that include veto threats by President George W. Bush, limited to records found within the Domestic Policy Council or the White House Office of Legislative Affairs collections.

This FOIA primarily contains publicly released documents such as fact sheets, executive orders, press releases, legislation, web printouts, and statements of administration policy. Also included are charts related to line item veto legislation, charts and printouts containing Congressional member voting history, a briefing paper for presidential remarks on embryonic stem cell research, informational documents related to the Stop Over-Spending Act, and a letter to President George W. Bush from the Senate regarding the war in Iraq. Lastly, there are administrative documents such as cover sheets.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2017-0029-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – Staff Member Office Files.

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.

Staff Member Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.
