Scope and Content
The materials in FOIA 2015-0288-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2015-0288-F requested textual records from the office files of Stephen Hadley related to the Iraq Surge from February 1, 2006 to May 1, 2008.

This FOIA primarily contains newspaper articles, fax cover sheets, charts, maps, routine memoranda, binder tabs, printed e-mails, press releases, and copies of public speeches, which President George W. Bush gave concerning the situation in Iraq. Also present are statements from Ryan Crocker and General David made before a joint hearing of the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Committee of Armed Services in September 2007 and in April 2008. Included as

It should be noted that many of the documents in this FOIA have been closed due to National Security classification and/or exemptions of the Freedom of Information Act.

Please note that a portion of classified records related to this request has not yet been processed. Additional records will be provided as they become available.

System of Arrangement
The materials in FOIA 2015-0288-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – Staff Member Office Files.

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.

Staff Member Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2015-0288-F:
