There is correspondence (drafts, as well as copies of the final) following this trip from President George W. Bush to those he met, thanking them for gifts, accommodations, and the warm reception received at each of the places he and Mrs. Bush visited. Moreover, there is correspondence from

Mrs. Bush thanking Mrs. Kartumu Boakai (Liberia's Vice President) for a gift received during this trip. There are forms from the Gift Office regarding incoming gifts, as well as press releases and printed materials from the White House website. Additional correspondence from President George W. Bush to Liberian officials is also present thanking them for gifts throughout the Bush administration.
