THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Dear Mr. President,

During this past year I have wanted to call you a number of times to assure you of my continued prayers and support. But then when I hear of all the phone calls you get, I feel that, in a sense, mine is the least and the last.

More specifically, I want to congratulate you on the interview you gave Diane Sawyer. You handled her tough questions with honesty and agility. Also, I was proud of Laura in her interview with Larry King at The White House.

Congratulations on the capture of Saddam. What a relief.

There is hardly an hour a day that we don't pray for you.

Please give my greetings to your father and mother, and also to Jenna and Barbara--they are so beautiful. Wishing the whole Bush family a merry Christmas and happy New Year.

Billy
