Biographical History:
Kristen Hughes served as a Staff Assistant within the Domestic Policy Council during the year 2005. Hughes also held positions in the Office of Policy Development and the Office of Presidential Advance.

Hughes continued to work in the Office of Presidential Advance through 2010. After leaving the White House, she has held multiple positions with the Special Olympics.

Hughes is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Bucknell University.
Scope and Content Note:
Hughes’ papers depict her role as support staff to Carol Thompson, Director of the Office of National AIDS Policy (ONAP), and Lance Leggitt, Senior Health Policy Advisor on the Domestic Policy Council.

Hughes’ Administrative Files mainly illustrate the administrative duties of her position: maintaining correspondence files and calendars for Thompson, booking travel and meetings, maintaining correspondence files for Leggitt. Hughes’ Subject Files reference a variety of domestic topics, such as the New Freedom Initiative, grant support provided to American Indians, and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF). Additionally, her Subject Files also contain materials related to the planning of meetings and trips.

A smaller portion of Hughes’ materials relate specifically to health issues. The majority of this Sub-series relates to HIV/AIDS advocacy. The Office of National Aids Policy (ONAP) conducted outreach with various organizations in conjunction with planning for the Ryan White Care Act Reauthorization. (Hughes’ materials relate to the push for reauthorization during 2005, but, ultimately, the Act was not passed in 2005 and was extended for one year under the previous terms. The Act was officially reauthorized in 2006, and then again in 2009.)
