BILLY GRAHAM
MONTREAT, NORTH CAROLINA 28757

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN
5/15/07

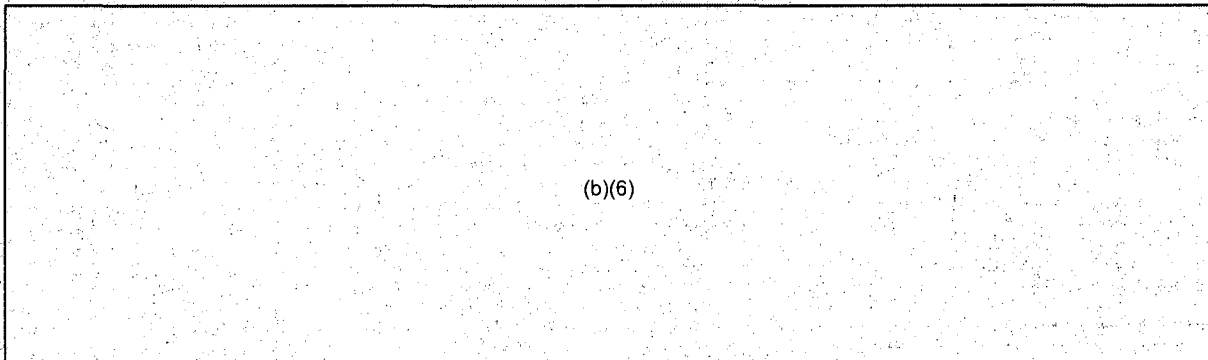

May 12, 2007

Dear Mr. President and Laura,

I followed all your activities with the Queen. She has had me preach for her at Windsor and Sandringham, and had private times with me on several occasions, so I especially enjoyed following the television coverage of her visit. She is a wonderful Christian woman with a deep personal faith.

As you may have heard from your father and mother, we are having a dedication on May 31 of a "library" and museum in Charlotte. Your father is to be the keynote speaker, and former Presidents Clinton and Carter will be there as well.

Knowing the tremendous load you are carrying in running the country, and the added burdens and stresses around the world, I did not expect you to attend. Please know, though, that we would love to have had the two of you! We will have about 1500 religious and civic leaders at the dedication. The outside of the building looks like a barn, to remind people that I came from a dairy farm!

With warmest personal affection,

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.
