Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2014-0490-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2014-0490-F contains materials related to correspondence regarding payday lending, rent-a-bank, or shadow banking.

This FOIA primarily contains general correspondence and memoranda. Included in this material is a memorandum from Thomas J. Bliley, Jr. to White House Chief of Staff Andrew Card describing the initiatives of the National Council on Financial Access as well as a memorandum from Steven D. Aiken to White House Chief of Staff Joshua Bolten regarding a proposed Department of Defense rule on predatory lending to service members.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2014-0490-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas - White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files.

WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at www.georgewbushlibrary.smu.edu
