> Hi Robb -
> Just to confirm our game plan for the President's visit to the National > Guard Armory on Saturday morning.
> Fleet and Coke with donate the bottled water -- a supply for > approximately > 4000 visitors.
> In turn, the volunteers plan to sell the water with all proceeds to > benefit

- > a non profit - breast cancer research organization (to be determined).
- >
- > Two important questions:
- >
- > 1. Can Fleet and Coke hang banners at both water stations
- >
- > 2. Can a placard be placed at both stations reading -
- >
- > "Water donated by Coke and Fleet. All Proceeds to benefit XXX non profit
- > organization (breast cancer research)"
- >
- > Rob, I have been in touch with Jim Merrill re: signage - and need for
- > coolers. We are definitely going to need coolers on site for the water.
- > Jim will coordinate water delivery directly with Coke ---
- >
- > We plan to have two waters stations inside. We will have 4 to 7 "Fleet
- > Works" employee volunteers on site to help with the water sale, and Jim
- is
- > arranging for 7 volunteers from a non profit breast cancer research
- > organization to staff the other water station.
