

Received(Date): 11 JUN 2003 18:28:17

From: Joel Pardue UNKNOWN])

P6/b6

To: jpardue@fed-soc.org (jpardue@fed-soc.org [UNKNOWN])

Bcc: Brett M. Kavanaugh (CN=Brett M. Kavanaugh/OU=WHO/O=EOP [WHO])

Subject: : Pryor Hearing

P_A9R3H003_WHO.TXT_1.txt

Begin Original ARMS Header

RECORD TYPE: PRESIDENTIAL (NOTES MAIL)

CREATOR:Joel Pardue UNKNOWN])

P6/b6

CREATION DATE/TIME:11-JUN-2003 18:28:17.00

SUBJECT:: Pryor Hearing

TO:jpardue@fed-soc.org (jpardue@fed-soc.org [UNKNOWN])

READ:UNKNOWN

BCC:Brett M. Kavanaugh (CN=Brett M. Kavanaugh/OU=WHO/O=EOP [WHO])

READ:UNKNOWN

End Original ARMS Header

The Pryor hearing went well today. Thanks to all the groups that had people there. Here are some some outrageous quotes from Senators Schumer, Feinstein and Kennedy. This should cause us to redouble our efforts to get members of our coalition group to call Southern, Maine and Rhode Island Senators to ensure Pryor is treated fairly once the committee sends his name to the floor of the Senate.

Senator Schumer:

Schumer: "I am disappointed to say that [Judge Pryor] resembles the nine nominees I have voted against. In many ways he is an amalgamation of [Bush's recent nominees]. He looks like Sutton on states rights issues. And he looks like Kuhl and Owen on women's rights. He is a stitching together of the worst judges I have opposed."

Schumer: "It's not enough to say 'I will follow the law.'...I need to see that your personal ideology won't influence your decisions."

Schumer: "[Pryor's] beliefs are so deeply held that it's very difficult to believe those views won't influence how he follows the law. A person's views matter."

Schumer: "I find it difficult to believe his incredibly strong ideology won't impact how he rules."

Schumer: "I believe a judge can be pro-life and follow Roe v. Wade. Some people can separate their personal views. But not everyone can pull this off. I've got some real concerns that [Pryor] can't."

Schumer: "Your record screams passionate advocate, but doesn't so much as whisper judge."

Schumer: "I don't think ideological warriors should predominate on the bench. If we have a Supreme Court justice nominee, I hope he looks like Richard Wesley, and less like he comes straight out of the Right-Wing

Wheel House."

Schumer: "Pryor has a long way to go to prove he is a fair and impartial judge."

Schumer: "When you believe abortion is murder, how can you convince the public that you are capable of being fair?"

Feinstein:

Feinstein: "I believe one can be a strong advocate and can be a good, impartial judge. But in this case, my theory is put to the test. In virtually every area, you have strong beliefs. Your comments on Roe make one wonder if you could step aside from those views."

Kennedy:

Kennedy: "An important question we must ask is whether or not you have an agenda. You are entitled to your opinion, but you aren't entitled to be voted for. We have to make an independent decision. We won't be a rubber stamp [on your nomination]."

Kennedy: "You want to roll back the Constitution to fit your agenda. You're an advocate so extreme that your statements at times are intemperate."

Hatch asked Pryor what his religious affiliation is, and Leahy objected.

Leahy: It's irrelevant if you are Catholic. I hope this isn't a question we're going to ask in the future. I think it's okay to ask about political philosophy and ideologies, but I really don't think we should start asking questions about religion. We will all regret it if we do."

Do you Yahoo!?

The New Yahoo! Search - Faster. Easier. Bingo.

- att1.htm

ATT CREATION TIME/DATE: 0 00:00:00.00

File attachment <P_A9R3H003_WHO.TXT_1>

The Pryor hearing went well today. Thanks to all the groups that had people there. Here are some some outrageous quotes from Senators Schumer , Feinstein and Kennedy. This should cause us to redouble our efforts to get members of our coalition group to call Southern, Maine and Rhode Island Senators to ensure Pryor is treated fairly once the committee sends his name to the floor of the Senate.

Senator Schumer:

Schumer: "I am disappointed to say that [Judge Pryor] resembles the nine nominees I have voted against. In many ways he is an amalgamation of [Bush's recent nominees]. He looks like Sutton on states rights issues. And he looks like Kuhl and Owen on women's rights. ; He is a stitching together of the worst judges I have opposed."

Schumer: "It's not enough to say 'I will follow the law.'...I need to see that your personal ideology won't influence your decisions."

Schumer: "[Pryor's] beliefs are so deeply held that it's very difficult to believe those views won't influence how he follows the law. A person's views matter."

Schumer: "I find it difficult to believe his incredibly strong ideology won't impact how he rules."

Schumer: "I believe a judge can be pro-life and follow Roe v. Wade. Some people can separate their personal views. But not everyone can pull this off. I've got some real concerns that [Pryor] can't."

Schumer: "Your record screams passionate advocate, but doesn't so much as whisper judge."

Schumer: "I don't think ideological warriors should predominate on the bench. If we have a Supreme Court justice nominee, I hope he looks like Richard Wesley, and less like he comes straight out of the Right-Wing Wheel House."

Schumer: "Pryor has a long way to go to prove he is a fair and impartial judge."

Schumer: "When you believe abortion is murder, how can you convince the public that you are capable of being fair?"

Feinstein:

Feinstein: "I believe one can be a strong advocate and can be a good, impartial judge. But in this case, my theory is put to the test. In virtually every area, you have strong beliefs. Your comments on Roe make one wonder if you could step aside from those views."

Kennedy:

Kennedy: "An important question we must ask is whether or not you have an agenda. You are entitled to your opinion, but you aren't entitled to be voted for. We have to make an independent decision. We won't be a rubber stamp [on your nomination]."

Kennedy: "You want to roll back the Constitution to fit your agenda. You're an advocate so extreme that your statements at times are intemperate."

Hatch asked Pryor what his religious affiliation is, and Leahy objected.

Leahy: It's irrelevant if you are Catholic. I hope this isn't a question we're going to ask in the future. I think it's okay to ask about political philosophy and ideologies, but I really don't think we should start asking questions about religion. We will all regret it if we do."

Do you Yahoo!?

The New Yahoo! Search - Faster. Easier. Bingo.