Yesterday, I spoke to the offices of the Majority and Minority Leaders and Whips, as well as the Senators from Ohio. I urged them on behalf of myself and the members of True Blue to affirm the vote of the people.
When we elect a President, it is with the understanding that the President nominates and the Senate is expected to vote -- not deny the citizens of America the system provided by the Constitution. This is an outrageous attempt to block all judicial nominees regardless of who holds the White House or the majority. It's pure gamesmanship by the liberals. I personally think we should play hard, hard ball! Let them filibuster round the clock or let us--but let's win!

Dear Friends: Below is a note from Kay Daly from Coalition for a Fair Judiciary. Tomorrow is voting day on Miguel Estrada. If you could make one quick phone call or send a short email in support of this judge to your Senator, it will make all the difference in the world.

This is not just about Miguel Estrada ... this is about every judge that the President submits from now on. So please help ... it only takes a second, and won't hurt a bit. - Kerri Houston, Vice President of Policy, Frontiers of Freedom

THE LEFT IS GENERATING PHONE CALLS ON ESTRADA

Thursday's vote on cloture is generating much "chatter" among the Lefties to gin up phone calls against Estrada.

Please -- get out your email lists, your state leadership lists, your blast fax lists and get our folks to call in to the Senate offices. And this goes for ANY state.

Please understand that those Senators who are not hearing from you, whether Republican or Democrat, do not have any idea that this is a big deal.

Many Senators, even on our team, who do not have significantly large Hispanic populations in their states, just don't get the same perspective that others might. So please, turn out the phone calls, friends.

Remember that this cloture vote could be the first of many more to come -- and we need to keep the pressure up now!

Thanks, as always,

Kay R. Daly
