Trouble On The Pickering Front

; ; ; ; ; Salon.com's Wilentz reports, there is "new evidence" that Bush jud. nominee Judge Charles Pickering "has lied about his efforts 'to establish better race relations' in the 1960s, discovered in the papers of" Pickering ex-law partner J. Carroll Gartin, a "devoted segregationist." The evidence "shows that Pickering's decision to defect" to the GOP "came at the strong urging of" then-MS LG Gartin. The papers, available at the U. of MS library,

"also confirm, in more detail than ever before, that Pickering became" a GOPer "in 1964 to protest" the nat'l Dem Party's "support for civil rights and its attacks on segregation."

; ; ; ; ; Writes Wilentz: "Even without the new evidence from Gartin's papers, Pickering's testimony" before the Senate Jd. Cmte "had already yielded some troubling contradictions, distortions and apparent falsehoods -- a pattern of dissembling that calls into question his fitness for the federal bench"

Trouble On The Pickering Front

Salon.com's Wilentz reports, there is "new evidence" that Bush jud. nominee Judge Charles Pickering "has lied about his efforts 'to establish better race relations' in the 1960s, discovered in the papers of" Pickering ex-law partner J. Carroll Gartin, a "devoted segregationist." The evidence "shows that Pickering's decision to defect" to the GOP "came at the strong urging of" then-MS LG Gartin. The papers, available at the U. of MS library, "also confirm, in more detail than ever before, that Pickering became" a GOPer "in 1964 to protest" the nat'l Dem Party's "support for civil rights and its attacks on segregation."

Writes Wilentz: "Even without the new evidence from Gartin's papers, Pickering's testimony" before the Senate Jd. Cmte "had already yielded some troubling contradictions, distortions and apparent falsehoods -- a pattern of dissembling that calls into question his fitness for the federal bench" (5/12).
