Dear Rosalynn,

President Bush and I are saddened to learn of your brother's death and grateful to join in the celebration of his life. As a math teacher and coach and later as a pastor, he made a difference in many lives. I know he must have been proud of you as well.

Though it is always too soon to say goodbye to a sibling, I am glad you had so many years with him. President Bush joins me in sending our sympathies to you, President Carter, and your family.

With best wishes,

Laura Bush

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) -- Murray Smith, the brother of former first lady Rosalynn Carter, died Sunday of cancer. He was 71.

Smith was retired from teaching upper-level mathematics classes and coaching high school baseball and basketball in Sumter and Marion counties. He became associate pastor of Union United Methodist Church in Dranesville 17 years ago.

The baseball team he coached won a state championship in the late 1960s.
